

The Regulations on Presidential Election

Chapter 1 General Provisions

Article 1 (Purpose) The purpose of these Regulations is to prescribe matters necessary for the election of the President of Kukkiwon (hereinafter referred to as "Presidential Election") in accordance with Article 10 paragraph 9 of the Articles of Association of Kukkiwon.

Article 2 (Scope of Application) Matters regarding the Presidential Election shall be subject to these Regulations, other than those prescribed by relevant laws and the Articles of Association. Separate rules may be established if necessary. However, if the Presidential Election is entrusted to the National Election Commission (hereinafter referred to as the "National Election Commission") under the 「Election Commission Act」 according to Article 10 paragraph 7 of the Articles of Association, the 「Act on Entrusted Election of Public Organizations, etc.」 and 「Rules on Entrusted Election of Public Organizations, etc.」 shall take priority in the Presidential Election.

Chapter 2 Setup of Election Commission, etc.

Article 3 (Setup of Election Commission, etc.) ① The Chairman of Kukkiwon (or the acting proxy, hereinafter the same) shall organize the Election Commission, a separate electoral commission that manages the election, four (4) months before the end of the President's term in accordance with Article 10 paragraph 7 of the Articles of Association. In the case of a by-election, the Election Commission shall be organized within two (2) months from the date the grounds for holding the election are confirmed. However, in special circumstances such as natural disasters or an influx of infectious diseases, etc., two (2) months may elapse, but shall be composed within six (6) months. This also applies in the case of a re-election in accordance with Article 45 or the case in which the Presidential Election is entrusted to the National Election Commission in accordance with Article 10 paragraph 7 of the Articles of Association. <Amended on Dec 9, 2020>

② The Election Commission shall carry out the following affairs:

1. Select electors;
2. Prepare for a list of electors;
3. Handle issues pertaining to browsing elector lists and objections;
4. Matters pertaining to the registration and resignation of candidates and other matters related to the announcement of candidates;
5. Matters pertaining to the suspension, warning, and survey of election campaign management and violations;
6. Matters pertaining to voting, ballot counting, and deciding the electee;
7. Matters pertaining to the election guidance and promotion
8. Other matters not prescribed by the Articles of Association or these Regulations.

③ The Election Commission shall be dissolved within sixty (60) days from the date of election. However, the date of dissolution may be deferred by the decision of the Chairman under special circumstances. <Amended on Dec 9, 2020>

④ In these Regulations, the "date that the grounds for holding the election are confirmed" refers to the date on which the President could not carry out their duties as a result of death, resignation, dismissal etc. according to the Articles of Association.

Article 4 (Entrustment of Election Duties) ① In the case that the Presidential Election is entrusted to the National Election Commission in accordance with Article 10 paragraph 7 of the Articles of Association, a written application 【Attached Form No. 1】 shall be submitted to the National Election Commission ninety (90) days before the end of the President's tenure (in the case of a re-election or a by-election, fifteen (15) days from the date that the grounds for holding the election are confirmed). However, if it is not possible, the entrustment period may be determined differently after consultation with the National Election Commission. <Amended on Dec 9, 2020>

② The scope of the entrustment of the election management according to paragraph 1 is as written in the following subparagraphs.

1. Tasks regarding candidate registrations (excluding tasks regarding elector selections);
2. Tasks regarding votes;
3. Tasks regarding ballot counting management (including tasks regarding deciding the electee);
4. Tasks regarding election guidance and promotion; and,
5. Tasks regarding the regulation and investigation of election campaigns that have violated the law, the Articles of Association, or these Regulations.

③ In the case that the Presidential Election is entrusted to the National Election Commission in accordance with paragraph 1, after consulting and coordinating entrustment affairs, etc., a written contract shall be established and signed.

<Amended on Dec 9, 2020>

Article 5 (Organization of Election Commission) ① The Election Commission shall be composed of seven (7) to nine (9) members. External personnel from academia, media, and law who are unrelated to the interests of Kukkiwon shall be the majority.
<Amended on Dec 9, 2020>

② The external personnel who are unrelated to the interests of Kukkiwon mentioned in paragraph 1 refer to those who are not in office(incumbent) executives or employees of Kukkiwon in the year that the Election Commission is organized, and have not been appointed, elected, or commissioned to their position by the Chairman, the President, etc. <Amended on Dec 9, 2020>

③ Members of the Election Commission shall be appointed by the Chairman of Kukkiwon with the approval of the Board of Directors. However, if the Chairman is unable to carry out their duties, either due to an accident or a vacancy, the acting proxy shall appoint the members with the approval of the Board of Directors in accordance with Article 16 of the Articles of Association. In the case that the President is the acting proxy, the Board of Directors shall appoint the members and organize the Election Commission. <Amended on May 27, 2022>

④ Members of the Election Commission may be appointed with the recommendation of the National Election Commission.

⑤ Kukkiwon directors and employees shall not become members of the Election Commission.

⑥ The chair of the Election Commission shall be appointed by the Chairman of Kukkiwon among the members of the Commission. <Amended on May 27, 2022>

⑦ The Chairman shall appoint one (1) coordinator for the Election Commission, and may provide daily expenses, etc. <Amended on May 27, 2022>

⑧ The Election Commission may appoint multiple administrative assistants to organize and manage the Electoral College, and may provide daily expenses, etc. <Amended on May 27, 2022>

⑨ Anyone appointed to be a member of the Election Commission shall not register as a candidate in the relevant Presidential Election.

Article 6 (Duties of Members) ① The chair of the Election Commission shall represent the Commission and supervise its overall duties.

② Members of the Election Commission shall form and attend the Election Commission to deliberate and determine matters pertaining to its duties.

③ If the chair of the Election Commission cannot carry out their duties, the oldest person among the members shall take over the duties.

Article 7 (Disqualification of Members) ① Anyone who pertains to Article 12 of the Articles of Association of Kukkiwon shall not be a member of the Election Commission. <Amended on Dec 9, 2020>

② If a member of the Election Commission pertains to, or is found to be relevant to, paragraph 1 at the time of their appointment, they shall be dismissed.

③ A member of the Election Commission cannot be an elector.

Article 8 (Tenure of Member) An Election Commission member's tenure shall begin on the date of appointment and end on the date of dissolution of the Election Commission.

Article 9 (Convening of Commission, etc) ① The chair of the Election Commission may convene meetings as necessary.

② If the chair of the Election Commission does not convene a meeting without a justifiable reason, it can be convened with the consent of a majority of the enrolled members.

④ The chair of the Election Commission shall have a vote.

Article 10 (Opening of Matters Related to Commission) ① The Election Commission shall remain private to guarantee the fairness of deliberation and voting.

③ Members of the Election Commission shall submit a written oath of confidentiality, etc to Kukkiwon. <Amended on Dec 9, 2020>

④ The Election Commission shall write and conserve the minutes that include the meeting's deliberations and resolutions.

Article 11 (Expelling, Evasion, etc.) ① The chair and members of the Election Commission shall not engage in the deliberation and resolution of the Election Commission in the following cases:

1. In the case that a President candidate is a family relative (relatives under Article 777 of the 「Civil Act」); and/or,

2. In the case that there is a legitimate reason that compromises election fairness.

② If a member of the Election Commission pertains to paragraph 1, they may disclose the fact in writing and request for avoidance or evade the meetings or deliberations pertaining to the candidate.

Article 12 (Dismissal of Members) The Chairman of Kukkiwon may dismiss a member of the Election Commission if the member pertains to any of the following. However, in the case that the member pertains to subparagraphs 4 to 6, the relevant member shall be dismissed: <Amended on Dec 9, 2020>

1. If there are work-related misdeeds;
2. If they are deemed to be inappropriate as a member of the Election Commission for reasons such as negligence, degradation of dignity, illnesses, etc.;
3. If the performance of the Election Commission member's duties is deemed to be inappropriate and a degradation of dignity, such as a violation of laws;
4. If they do not comply with Article 10 paragraph 2;
5. If they submit a resignation of their own volition; or,
6. If the member refrains from avoidance or evasion despite being relevant to Article 11.

Article 13 (Payment of Conference Fees) Members of the Election Commission may be provided with meeting expenses, etc. as necessary and within the scope of the relevant budget. <Amended on Dec 9, 2020>

② The election campaign methods for the presentation of opinions mentioned in paragraph 1 subparagraph 5 are as follows:

1. On the date of the election, before the voting begins, the chair of the Election Commission shall introduce each candidate to the electors at the voting booth or site of the Board of Directors in the sequential order of their numbers, and shall have the candidates present their opinions. In this case, each candidate shall be given the same amount of time in the 10-minute range for their presentations.

2. Candidates who have failed to arrive at the voting booth by their turn to present their opinions shall be considered to have forfeited their chance to present their opinions.

3. The chair of the Election Commission shall intervene and stop candidates who deliver an address or remark that violates these Regulations, and shall carry out necessary measures such as suspending the presentation of opinions if the candidate refuses to follow orders.

4. The chair of the Election Commission shall intervene and stop persons who are preventing candidates from presenting their opinions or are causing disorder, and may order such persons to leave the voting booth if they refuse to comply with demands to stop.

5. Nobody shall keep or otherwise carry signs with a candidate's symbol, photograph, name, etc. during the presentation of opinions.

③ Candidates may not engage in election campaigns with details regarding their academic records, careers, etc. that are not true.

④ Detailed election campaign methods for each subparagraph of paragraph 1 shall follow the stipulations of the Election Commission (National Election Commission)

⑤ The pre-recording of the presentation of opinions mentioned in paragraph 1 subparagraph 5 must be produced to be under 10 minutes by the candidates 【Attached Form No. 9】, and must be submitted along with the letter of self-introduction within 4 days after the end of the candidate registration deadline. The Election Commission will have the video recording and letter of self-introduction posted on the Kukkiwon website from the day after the registration deadline until election day. Submissions received after the registration deadline shall be posted immediately after registration. <Newly Inserted on Aug 18, 2022>

Article 26 (Election Campaign Period) The election campaign period shall be limited to the next day of the last registration date until the day prior to the election date. However, the candidate's presentation of opinions on election day shall be an exception.

Article 27 (Election Campaign Restrictions) ① Anyone shall not engage in any of the following subparagraphs with the intention to win or lose the election for oneself or another specific person;

1. Any activity of offering money, goods, regalement, property profits, or public and private positions to an elector (prior to the creation of the elector list, this includes persons who have the qualification to be put on the elector list), an elector's family (this refers to an elector's spouse, direct ancestors, descendants and siblings of an elector and their spouse, and spouses of direct ancestors, descendants and siblings of an elector: hereinafter the same shall apply), or institutions, groups, and facilities founded/operated by an elector or their families, and any activity of expressing the intent or promising to provide such;
 2. Any activity pertaining to subparagraph 1 regarding candidates and persons seeking to be candidates done with the intention to prevent another from becoming a candidate or to force a candidate to resign;
 3. Any activity of being provided or accepting the intent to be provided with profits or positions as described in paragraphs 1 or 2; and,
 4. Any persons who have directed, suggested, brokered, or requested the activities mentioned in paragraphs 1 through 3.
- ② No one shall visit each elector or mobilize others to gather in a specific place to campaign.
- ③ No one shall slander candidates by announcing false facts or making public statements regarding the Presidential Election through calls, texts, business cards, electronic mail, internet websites, or other methods.
- ④ A candidate may have one (1) campaign office and no more than three (3) campaign staff members. Executives and employees pertaining to Article 18 paragraph 3 shall not be campaign staff. <Amended on May 27, 2022> <Amended on Aug 18, 2022>
- ⑤ Candidates shall report to the Election Commission by submitting 【Attached Form No. 10 and 11】 when installing a campaign office or appointing a campaign staff member. <Amended on May 27, 2022> <Amended on Aug 18, 2022>
- ⑥ The candidate shall cover all costs related to the campaign office, and may provide daily pay and expenses to their campaign staff. The standard of daily pay for campaign staff shall be no more than one hundred thousand (100,000) KRW per day, and the expenses shall be determined by Appendix 2 subparagraph 2 of the 「Regulations on Travel Expenses for Public Officials」. <Amended on May 27, 2022>

<Amended on Aug 18, 2022>

Article 28 (Punishment) ① The Election Commission may decide to punish those who have engaged in the behaviors prohibited in the Articles of Association and these Regulations based on the following:

1. If the violation is determined to have seriously damaged the fairness of an election or if the relevant party fails to comply with a suspension, a warning, or corrective actions;

A. Invalidate registration or election victory (limited to candidates only);

B. Deprive the elector's election rights;

C. Request for disciplinary action from the Reward and Punishment Committee of Kukkiwon or from the violator's affiliated organization;

D. Restrict future applications for all other Kukkiwon-related events, businesses, screening and qualifications, as well as employment and activities as executives and employees of Taekwondo organizations, in addition to restricting participation (limited to those who don't belong to Taekwondo organizations);

E. Suspend various qualifications acquired from Kukkiwon, such as Poom and Dan Certificates, Master, Referee, and Judge qualifications, dismiss and restrict against the issuance of various certificates;

F. Request an investigation from relevant investigative institutions or take legal action; and/or,

G. Punishment described in the clauses of the same subparagraph above may take place simultaneously.

2. If the violation is determined to have damaged the fairness of an election to a lesser extent;

A. Request suspension through oral and written means or issue a warning and corrective orders (limited to the first-time violation);

B. Notify electors of the violation and punishment;

C. Display the violation and punishment in each voting place on the date of election; and/or, (post on the Kukkiwon website if online voting) <Amended on May 27, 2022>

D. Punishment described in the clauses of the same subparagraph above may take place simultaneously.

② In the case that the written oath (Written Oath Confirming the Absence of Disqualifying Matters of an Executive) in Article 21 paragraph 2 subparagraph 5 is found to be false, the violating party will be permanently expelled, and the electee's victory will be canceled.

Article 29 (Organization of the Fair Election Support Group) ① The Election Commission (National Election Commission) may establish the Fair Election Support Group to watch over the election, consisting of neutral and fair people for the prevention, monitoring and suspension of violations against the Presidential Election.
② The number of members monitoring election corruption as mentioned in paragraph 1 shall be limited to ten (10) and may be provided with daily pay and expenses. <Amended on May 27, 2022>

Article 30 (Kukkiwon Executives, Employees, and Relevant Personnel's Duty to Remain Neutral) ① Kukkiwon executives, employees, and relevant personnel (includes those that apply to Chapters 6 through 9 of the Articles of Association of Kukkiwon. Hereinafter the same in this Article) have a duty to remain neutral regarding the election. However, in the case that a Kukkiwon employee performs their duties as a coordinator or an administrative assistant for the smooth progress of the Presidential Election procedures, it shall not count as a violation of their duty to remain neutral. <Amended on May 27, 2022> <Amended on Aug 18, 2022>
② If executives and employees of Kukkiwon leak information without the approval of the Election Commission (National Election Commission) in relation to the organization of the Electoral College, or engage in other violations, the Election Commission (National Election Commission) may request the Reward and Punishment Committee (Disciplinary Committee) of Kukkiwon to impose punishment. Otherwise, they may file a lawsuit. However, this is relevant only when there is sufficient evidence. <Amended on Dec 9, 2020>

Article 31 (Method of Election, etc.) ① The election shall be held by secret vote.
② To vote, electors shall mark the ballot (includes online voting). <Amended on Dec 9, 2020>
③ One elector may exercise one vote.
④ Electors shall not sign their names or make any other mark that would suggest their identity.
⑤ The Election Commission (National Election Commission) shall issue ballots after checking the elector's identity against a photo ID (resident registration card, passport, driver's license and/or public official certificate etc.). In the case of an online vote, the elector's identity may be verified using a method determined by the Election Commission (National Election Commission). <Amended on Aug 18, 2022>

Article 32 (Place of Voting) The Election Commission (National Election Commission) shall set up voting booths by the date prior to the election date. However, exceptions can be made in the case of an online vote. <Amended on May 27, 2022>

Article 33 (Ballot) ① A ballot shall denote the candidate's name and number. The candidate numbers shall be marked as "1, 2 and 3" in the order of candidate placement. Names shall be written in both Korean and English. If there are candidates who have the same name, their date of birth shall be written in parenthesis.

② If there is only one candidate, despite paragraph 1, the name of the candidate shall appear on the ballot and electors shall be able to vote in favor or against the candidate.

Article 34 (Voting Time) ① Voting time shall be prescribed by the Election Commission (National Election Commission).

② When the voting time is about to end, the voting booths shall be closed only after the electors waiting in line to vote at the polling station (limited to the one in the Republic of Korea) are provided with numbers so that they can submit their vote. <Amended on Dec 9, 2020>

Article 35 (Dispatch of Voting Guidelines) ① The Election Commission (National Election Commission) shall dispatch voting guidelines to electors until two (2) days after the list of electors is finalized. The voting guidelines shall contain details such as the electors' names, registration numbers for the elector list, voting booth location, voting hours, necessary items for voting, voting procedure, and a message encouraging electors to participate in the vote.

② The Election Commission (National Election Commission) may send voting guidelines via text message, electronic mail, etc., and may make the guidelines in English. <Amended on Dec 9, 2020> <Amended on May 27, 2022>

Article 36 (Online Voting) ① Voting through an internet-based personal computer and a mobile communication device (smartphone, tablet computer, etc.) (hereinafter "online voting") is permitted, and the detailed procedures or methods of online voting shall be determined by separate regulations to be approved by the Board of Directors. <Amended on Dec 9, 2020> <Amended on May 27, 2022>

② When enabling the elector to exercise their voting rights through online voting according to paragraph 1, the fact that online voting will take place and the voting period, etc. shall be notified in advance. <Amended on Dec 9, 2020>

③ Another voting method may be run in parallel with online voting by the decision of the Election Commission. In the case that the election is entrusted to the National Election Commission, the Election Commission shall decide in consultation with the National Election Commission. <Amended on Dec 9, 2020> <Amended on

May 27, 2022>

Article 37 (Observation of Voting and Ballot Counting) ① A candidate shall select no more than two (2) voting observers in each voting place by two days before the election date. They shall select no more than two (2) ballot counting observers and report them to the Election Commission (National Election Commission) in writing by the date prior to the election date. In this case, a ballot counting observer may also be a voting observer.

② If a candidate fails to report a ballot counting and a voting observer in accordance with paragraph 1, it shall be assumed that they have forfeited observations for ballot counting and voting.

③ When there is no selection of an observer or there is only those observers selected by one candidate, the Election Commission (National Election Commission) shall secure up to four (4) selected people to observe the voting based on approval of people who are fair and neutral. In this case, any person selected to be an observer shall submit their letter of acceptance.

④ Candidates, spouses of candidates, or executives and employees of Kukkiwon shall not be a ballot counting observer nor a voting observer.

⑤ In the case of an online vote, election observation can be skipped. <Amended on May 27, 2022> <Amended on Aug 18, 2022>

Article 38 (Objection to the Election Result) ① Candidates or electors intending to object to the election or the validity of the selection shall file an objection in written form to the Election Commission within 5 days after the day the reason for objection occurs (the election day when it comes to the validity of the vote). <Amended on Dec 9, 2020> <Amended on Aug 18, 2022>

② When a ballot-counting observer finds an illegal matter related to the counting, they may immediately request for correction. <Amended on Dec 9, 2020>

Article 39 (Election Deposits) ① The Election Commission (National Election Commission) shall return election deposits in full within 30 days after the election date to the candidates who have been elected, or have won no less than 20/100 of the total number of valid votes, or have passed away. Election Deposits from candidates who have won less than 20/100 of the total number of valid votes shall be vested in Kukkiwon in full. <Amended on May 27, 2022>

Article 40 (Validity of Election etc.) ① <Deleted on May 27, 2022>

② <Deleted on Dec 9, 2020>

Article 41 (Payment for Daily Labor, etc.) Kukkiwon may provide daily payment or expenses for meals prices to voting observers, vote tally observers, etc. <Amended on May 27, 2022>

Chapter 6 Decision of Election

Article 42 (Electee Determination) ① The person who wins the most valid votes from the Electoral College shall be the electee. <Amended on Dec 9, 2020> <Amended on May 27, 2022>

② <Deleted on May 27, 2022>

③ <Deleted on May 27, 2022>

④ <Deleted on May 27, 2022>

⑤ If the majority votes are the same number in the election mentioned in paragraph 1, the person with the higher Taekwondo Dan shall be the electee. If the Dan is the same, the person who has passed the final Taekwondo Dan test earlier shall be the electee. <Amended on Dec 9, 2020> <Amended on May 27, 2022>

⑥ In the case that there is only one (1) candidate after the registration period is over, or due to reasons such as the death or invalid registration of the other registered candidates, the person who wins the majority of valid votes shall be the electee. <Amended on Dec 9, 2020> <Amended on May 27, 2022>

Article 43 (Invalidation of Election) If the elected President is found to have grounds for disqualification under the Articles of Association, the election will lose effect.

Article 44 (Announcing the Elected President, etc.) Once the President is elected, the Election Commission shall issue a Certificate of Election 【Attached Form No. 12】 and announce the winner on the Kukkiwon website the day after the election date in accordance with 【Attached Form No. 13】. <Amended on Aug 18, 2022>

Chapter 7 Subsidiary Provisions

Article 45 (Re-election) ① If any of the following subparagraphs are relevant, a re-election shall take place:

1. If there are no candidates;
2. If the Election Commission (National Election Commission) has decided to annul

the election;

3. <Deleted on May 27, 2022>

4. If the electee has resigned or passed away before the commencement of their term.

② If the election is annulled in accordance with paragraph 1 subparagraph 2, the Election Commission (National Election Commission) shall return the candidate's election deposits. However, if the election annulment reasons are directly due to a certain candidate, the election deposits of the candidate concerned shall not be returned.

③ <Deleted on May 27, 2022>

Article 46 (By-elections) A by-election shall be conducted if the President's position is vacant.
